Akademische Reitkunst

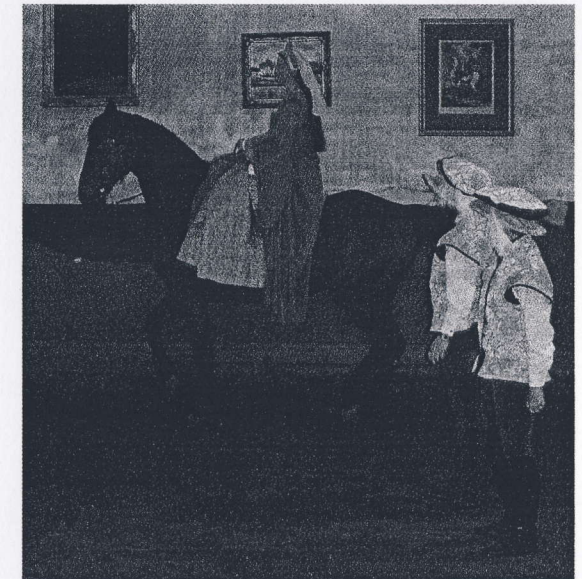

Isabel Steiner is, after more than 30 years in the saddle, now 13 years active in the academic art of riding. 1998 first clinic with Bent Branderup; since then she organized several clinics a year

Beginning of the education of Aegidienberg gelding „Skuggi“. After labourious filtering of his gaits now side movements in all his gaits: Walk, trot, galopp and of course Tölt.

2000 halfblood gelding „L´amour“ came to us. 2001, after half a year of physical recovery, starting to improve his overall fitness with side movements in walk and trot, shortly after side movements in galopp, too. September 2002 examination and admission in the knighthood of the academic art of riding by grandmaster Bent Branderup. With this she also received her trainers license. Piaffexamination in April 2005. All our horses are being educated by the principles of the academic art of riding. This also means, that the sanity of the horse can be improved by its rider, und and riding can become gymnastics for the horse form the saddle. The art of riding should always improve the physical fitness and also mental well being of the horse.

Dr. Markus Steiner, only riding for a couple of years, spends his free time to educate his peruvian paso mare „Faldeno Juliana“. He also likes to work our horses from the ground and supports with medical, osteopathic and acupuncture-techniques and also regulates professionally teeth and brings the jaws in balance. So all our horses — and those of our customers — profit from this complete wellness package.
